

Franca AUDISIO

National President

AIDDA

<http://www.aidda.org>

Description

AIDDA is the first Italian association established with the specific objective of promoting and supporting women entrepreneurs, managers and professionals. Established in 1961 in Turin, it is the most authoritative reference point for women holding leadership roles in Italian companies and professions, providing them with tools and services of excellence to grow, train and establish themselves as an added value both in the professional and social context.

Organization Type

Women's Association,

Areas of Activities

Other