DESCRIPTION Maison Des Dunes is one of those exclusive houses still following the great tradition of bath linen. The nobility of its cotton and the density of its weaving contribute to the exceptional softness and smoothness of its towels. On this unique material, Maison Des Dunes just adds a fine embroidery work, its trademark and signature. Emblematic of an ancient Moroccan tradition, passed down from generation to generation delicate embroidered patterns bring a touch of elegance and originality to this luxurious line of bath linens.
