Description

Badguèr is a non-profit organization, established in 2012 and located in Bourj Hammoud, Lebanon. The center's main objective is to valorize, promote and transmit the Armenian cultural heritage. The organization seeks to encourage the young generation to inherit the know-how, skills and practices related to the traditional crafts. It also facilitates the exposure of Armenian artisans - especially women - and their works, on a national and international level by operating as a networking and exchange platform to facilitate connections.
